THANK YOU! THANK YOU!

Your contributions to our Silent Auction were tremendous! Not only did we have a huge number of beautiful and unique items donated by our community and community retailers, but also the support of many of you in purchasing items, made it all work. The funds generated go directly into the purchase of new materials for our collection

Teen Scene:

Book Club meets this Thursday, November 27th, but don't be afraid if you haven't read this month's pick, The Belles! Our Book Club meets and chats about what we have been reading or watching, favourite fandoms, and much more! Perhaps our most favourite event of the year is right around the corner?our annual Gingerbread House Decorating Competition. This year's theme is Candy Land, so start planning out how your house could look. Registration is required for this event!

Here's a list of our upcoming events:

Tuesday, December 4th, 4:00-5:00pm- TAB Meeting. Thursday, December 6th, 3:30-4:30pm- Writer's Café. Tuesday, December 11th, 4:00-5:00pm- Gingerbread House Decoration Competition (registration required)

Upcoming Children's Events

Carolyn j. Morris will be visiting our library on Friday, November 30th at 10:30 am. She will be singing, reading some of her stories, and making a special craft with us. Register early as there are limited spaces.

The library will be hosting Wintertime Slime on Saturday, December 8th, 2018 from 1-2 pm. We will be creating three types of winter and holiday- themed slime. This group is open to children ages 6-12 years old. Sign up today, limited spaces available!

NEW BOOKS

I have just finished reading Lee Child's new book, Past Tense and for once I have to say that there were strong elements that I really did not care for. Generally, he is my go to airplane read; Jack Reacher is a rough, tough ex-military cop, who always gets the bad guys and stands up for justice even if it is slightly on the vigilante side. However, in this book, there is a parallel plot one in which he is looking for the town in which his father grew up and encounters some trouble along the way, and the second plot which is very dark and menacing. Needless to say the two intertwine and that is when the really dark elements surface!
