

Medical Intuitive to visit Shelburne

This Saturday, September 28th, from 1:30 ? 4 p.m. Medical Intuitive, Angelo Corriero will host a 2.5 hour session at the Shelburne Public Library (located at 201 Owen Sound Street in Shelburne).

Tickets are $22 each and should be purchased in advance online at www.angelocorriero.com/. Go to the ?Events? page. Seating is limited.

Angelo, is also a psychotherapist, and reconnective healing practitioner. His workshop will demonstrate how medical intuition works and how it can be of benefit to you.

Angelo will also be doing 5?10 minute readings per person for the attendees.

A medical intuitive is an alternative medicine practitioner who uses their self described intuitive abilities to find the cause of a physical or emotional condition. Other terms for this practice include medical clairvoyant, medical psychic or intuitive counsellor.

A medical intuitive may determine areas of concern from a holistic health practitioner's point of view and make recommendations in regards to physical or psychological evaluation through a qualified health professional and give advice on general nutritional or life-style changes.

Tickets are also available at the Soaring Health Clinic ? 116 Main St East Shelburne, or by phone at 519-925-1999 or online.
