

30 year old man arrested on eight counts of breaching court conditions

On Thursday April 10th Shelburne Police arrested and charged a 30 year old man in Shelburne for breaching his court recognizance. The local male was bound by conditions from the Orangeville Courts in relation to Domestic Assault and Uttering Threats charges. Those charges were laid by Orangeville Police back in October 2013. An investigation by Shelburne Police revealed that this male had breached those conditions eight times between March 21st and April 10th 2014. He was held for a bail hearing at the Orangeville court house.

The name of the accused is being withheld for the benefit of the victim.
