

Panto time will soon be here!

Come and cheer on the good guys and boo and hiss at the bad guys. This year's pantomime from the Tipling Stage Company, Shelburne's Community Theatre, is Little Red Riding Hood and there'll be fun for everyone at Grace Tipling Hall November 28th to 30th.

Director Bev Nicholas presents his version of the story with veteran pantomime performers from far and near the wonderful theatre where area residents come back to enjoy the pantomime each year. Jo Hubbard is choreographing, Gerry McNalty is directing the music with Bob Bagnell, percussionist and Michel Malcoux on guitar, and Kim Peeters is choral director. Yeay! Comedy, laughter, foot-tapping songs and music.

Wolfgang Wolf has returned to England after in exile and he's seeking his revenge on Chief Forester Lionel, a one time follower of Robin Hood, who helped to banish him and on Gertie Girdle who spurned his proposal of marriage. With the help of Sniffy and Snuffy Skunk, he plans to kidnap Red Riding Hood and restore his position in Twittingham village, but Woody and his friends soon thwart his plans.
