

Celebrate Caledon's poets

As part of their Celebrate Local Authors campaign, the Caledon Public Library will be hosting 'Stopping by the Mill on a Poetry Evening' (with apologies to Robert Frost). Eight award-winning Caledon poets will be strutting their metaphorical stuff on Friday, November 28th, 7-9 p.m. at the Alton Mill Arts Centre's ongoing series, Culture Café.

Poets include: Harry Posner, Patricia Lawrence, Lisa Watson, Jim Scott, Judy Zarowny, Britta Elmberg, Mark Grice, and Elaine Coish. With gypsy jazz music courtesy of Will Devonshire. Munchies by Shaw's Creek Café. Tickets are free, but should be reserved by contacting any branch of the Caledon Library.

For more information go to www.altonmill.ca