

Junior C Vets season starts Sunday

The Shelburne Junior C Vets will start the 2015 season this coming weekend.

The hometown boys are scheduled to host Halton Hills at the Centre Dufferin Recreation Complex for their season and home opener.

The Vets are looking to improve their record over last season when they finished in the middle of the pack with a 8?8 record and 17 points.

There are 15 teams entered in the OJCLL this season divided into two divisions.

Shelburne will play in the West Division.

The season opener will get underway at the CDRC with a 7 p.m. start.

By Brian Lockhart