Teen Scene:

The first week of the TSRC 2020 is over, and we were very excited to see all of the vessels you have selected for your Time Capsules. Each week the Beanstack app will allow you to complete a new badge associated with the creation of your time capsule. If you haven't already, this week's task requires some thinking and reflecting on your part, so login to Beanstack and see what questions you'll have to answer!

Our most popular books read by TSRC participants this week come from the Hunger Games series, which isn't all that surprising now that Ballad of Songbirds and Snakes has been released! Watch our catalogue and place your holds once it becomes available!

Online Resources

Our online resources are still available 24/7! This week, challenge yourself to check them out?you could find a new recipe, a new book, or even a new language!
