

What's new at the Shelburne Library

The Shelburne Public Library would like to give a very warm thank you to all the members of our community who supported its silent auction.

Those who made such generous and wonderful donations as well as those who purchased the items on display, enabled the library to have the best annual fundraiser ever.

Watch the Shelburne Public Library's social media in the coming days for the top reads of 2023, including its top reads selected by staff.

Stay tuned for more details on the new and exciting programming we have in store for 2024.
