

Two unclaimed OLG prize amounts must be claimed by Nov. 30th

Do you have old LOTTO MAX tickets tucked away in a drawer or a purse or in the pocket a fall coat? You are being urged to check as the clock is ticking to award two major prizes from the November 30, 2012 LOTTO MAX draw:

? $50 million jackpot prize, ticket sold in Cambridge

? $311,560 second prize, ticket sold in Orillia

The Ontario Lottery and Gaming Corporation (OLG) reminds customers who purchased a LOTTO MAX ticket for the November 30, 2012 draw that they have one year from the draw date to claim a prize from this draw.

?Look in your glove compartment, purse, kitchen drawer and the pockets of seasonal clothing,? advised Tony Bitonti, OLG spokesperson. ?We're eager to award these two prizes to the rightful winners before the tickets expire.?

The winning numbers for this LOTTO MAX draw from the Friday, November 30, 2012 draw were 3 ? 10 ? 13 ? 23 ? 31 ? 41 ? 45, with the bonus number 33.

Anyone possessing tickets for the November 30, 2012 LOTTO MAX draw should fill in the back portion, sign them and contact the OLG Prize Centre at 20 Dundas Street West in Toronto before 3 p.m. on Saturday, November 30, 2013.

Information about this and other unclaimed tickets is available at www.OLG.ca ? click on UNCLAIMED TICKETS link on the homepage.

The OLG Prize Centre is now open Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Please note that the Prize Centre will be closed if the Saturday is a statutory holiday or if a statutory holiday falls on the Friday or the Monday of the same weekend. For full details on Prize Centre hours and services, please visit the ?How to Claim Prizes? section of our website at www.OLG.ca

Winners of up to $250,000 also have the convenience of dropping off winning tickets for processing at any OLG Casino or at several of OLG Slots at Racetrack facilities. Winning tickets of less than $999.99 can be cashed at these sites.

Please call 1-800-387-0098 for more details on claiming these or any lottery prizes.
