

Audition for a part in Shelburne's next community theatre production!

The Tipling Stage Company is holding open auditions for the five characters who make up the cast of Norm Foster's Jenny's House of Joy. There's Jenny, owner of the house of joy and jaded Frances, who's really a little over the hill for this particular line of work, Anita and Natalie ? two younger women with ambitions and Clara, an irate client's wife. We will also be casting two understudies who will work as crew, standing in and prompting at rehearsals and learning enough about the production to actually be able to take over a part if needed. So, if you're not yet ready to commit to a role but would like to gain some stage experience, come along and audition.

Auditions are slated for Sunday February 9th at 2 p.m. at Grace Tipling Hall, Shelburne with callbacks, if necessary, on Thursday, February 13th. No preparation is necessary ? you will be asked to read from the script. The play will be directed by Jean Jardine Miller and will run April 25th, 26th, 27th, May 2nd and 3rd. Rehearsals will be Sunday 1 ? 5 p.m. & Thursday ? 9 p.m. beginning February 16th at Grace Tipling Hall.
