

Shelburne Library news

March Break is here and I certainly hope the weather gives us a break soon. Our tickets are rapidly selling for our programs? check out our ad in the paper! I will give you a few details here as well.

March Break: We are rounding off the week with a very interesting craft session at 10:30 a.m. on Friday, March 14, we will be making Dream Catchers. These are lovely ornaments and you can see samples at the library. There is a nominal cost of $2 for the supplies, so please come in and register.

Our Tuesday and Friday story times will be cancelled for the. All regular events will resume the following week.

Teen Programs: Pizza & Pages will be held on tonight, March 13. This date is a change from the regular month end.

BOOK SALE:

Be prepared for an absolutely fantastic sale! Not only do we have our usual $2 per bag items, but, we have received a donation of brand new books? huge runs of many popular authors, James Patterson, Nora Roberts, J.D.Robb etc. So come early and enjoy the bargains.

Fiction:

Still life with bread crumbs by Anna Quindlen

Ripper by Isabel Allende

The Wedding bees by Sarah-Kate Lynch

River Road by Jayne Ann Krentz

Return to Tradd Street by Karen White

The Drowning spool by Monica Ferris

The Polaris protocol by Brad Taylor

North of Boston by Elisabeth Elo

The Secret of magic by Deborah Johnson

Standup guy by Stuart Woods

Christian Nation by Frederic C. Rich

The Goldfinch by Donna Tartt