

Bolton man arrested in Shelburne

The Shelburne Police responded to a disturbance call in the downtown area just after midnight on Thursday April 3rd. The investigation revealed that the disturbance was domestic in nature and involved some violence.

Later the same day a 23 year old Bolton man was arrested and charged with assault, uttering death threats and criminal harassment threatening conduct. He was held for a bail hearing at the Orangeville court house scheduled to place on April 4th.

The name of the accused is being withheld for the benefit of the victim.

If anyone has any information in relation to this case or any other criminal activity, they are encouraged to contact the Shelburne Police Service at 519-925-3312 or anonymously through Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477) or online at www.crimestoppersdm.com