

Domestic disturbance call results in charges

Members of Shelburne Police Service responded to a domestic disturbance call shortly before midnight on Wednesday May 7th. An investigation was initiated. As a result on the following day a 42 year old Bolton male was arrested and charged with two counts of assault. He was held for a bail hearing. The name of the accused is being withheld for the safety of the victim.