Kyle Charron dominates Shelburne once again

The sun shone on the 64th Canadian Open Old Time Fiddle Championship just finished in Shelburne.

This year's Canadian Open Old Time Fiddle Champion, Kyle Charron of Barrie, Ontario, was crowned at the finals on Saturday, August 9.

This was Kyle's fourth Championship. His previous Championships were in 2011, 2009, and 2007 when, at 17, he was the youngest fiddler to ever win the Championship.

The previous holder of that crown Louis

Schryer, was one of the contest judges in 2007. Award results for all of the competition classes are attached and are also available at www.ShelburneFiddleContest.com. Kyle also won the Canadian Tune of Choice trophy and award with Rose's Swing by Webb Acheson.

With 60 contest entries from as far away as Fairbanks, Alaska, and over 1,500 audience members joining us over the course of the event, another successful edition of Canada's premier fiddle championship has passed into the history books.

Sandra Gallagher, Chair of the Shelburne Rotary Club's contest organizing committee, said, "This was a great year for the fiddle contest and we are already getting geared up for the 65th next year - we're going to pull out all the stops. I really want to thank all of our contestants, judges, audience members, sponsors, helpers and supporters for assisting us in making it such a success."

The youngest competitor this year was five year old Bailey Lemelin; the oldest was 84 year old Leon Stachnyk.

The Junior Championship (13-18 year olds) was won by Celine Murray of Dorchester, Ontario, home of the Donnybrook Fiddle and Stepdance Competition. This was Celine's second Junior Championship in a row. Look for her in the Championship Class at future contests.

The Invincible Vince Mountford Memorial Trophy for "Most Entertaining Fiddler" was presented to Duncan McDougall from Uxbridge, Ontario who won the 10-12 Year Class with a great deal of showmanship.

The hat was passed at the Saturday night show to raise money for the Shelburne Food Bank - the collection of $750 will be matched by the Rotary Club of Shelburne for a total donation of $1,500.

The traditional corsage presentation, sponsored by the Hardick family, was made to Helen Lyon, who has been at every fiddle contest since 1951.

The Saturday afternoon show at the arena featured The Ballagh Bunch in a crowd pleasing fiddling, stepdancing, and singing show for a crowd of over 250. On Thursday night, the Beckett Family were a huge hit, with a crowd of over 400 treated to a variety of fiddle tunes.

Mark your calendar now for the 65th Championship: August 5-9, 2015.

Linsey and Tyler Beckett, the stars of the Beckett family performers, are two time Canadian duet fiddle champions and three time Ontario duet champions. They performed for over 400 people at the CDRC August 7th with their Dad, John and Grandfather Stan Beckett and band.

BY MARNI WALSH

Watching the Beckett family perform, at the Centre Dufferin Recreation Complex on August 7, it was hard not to feel amazingly lucky to see such talent in small town Ontario. The Becketts are exceptional performers and to watch them on stage live is something to be remembered.

The Becketts had not been back to perform at Fiddlefest for nearly a decade and John Beckett, who was interviewed for the 50th anniversary documentary on the fiddle contest, commented that it was "a pleasure to come down; it brings back a lot of great memories – we saw a lot of people we hadn't seen in a long time."

The stars of the show, Linsey and Tyler Beckett, are both past fiddle contest winners, and Linsey is an award winning step dancer. The two are also two time Canadian duet fiddle champions and three time Ontario duet champions. Since graduating with a business degree, Tyler has played with Jason McCoy, Jason Blaine and Tara Oram, and with the award winning bluegrass band, The Chapman's. Linsey, who had a smile that lit up the stage, toured with The Don Messer Jubilee Tribute Show starting at the age of 13, performing as the lead in her last year, 2005. In 2009, she began working with the stage production Bowfire, comprised of some of North America's finest violinists, touring across the United States, Mexico, Germany and Canada, including a performance for Sean Connery's 80th birthday.

The Becketts, who incorporate three generations of the family into the show, have opened for acts like the Barra McNeil's, Natalie Mc Master and Ashley McIssac. It was not so long ago that there were more generations playing - great grandfather Elmer Beckett was featured on their first album entitled "Four Generations." Stan Beckett is the grandfather of the family, who sixty years ago, at 18 years of age, was the youngest fiddler in the Shelburne fiddle contest. Stan played fiddle and mandolin Thursday night, never missing a tune, and blended vocal harmonies beautifully with his son John on bass guitar. John, as the lead vocalist, had a warm country tone that delivered old favourites, like his Ray Price medley, to an audience he obviously knew well. The quiet pride both men had in Tyler and Linsey, as they took centre stage, could be felt throughout the room.

The Becketts knew how to shine the spot light on all their band members, which included pianist Mel Aucoine, who had played with Al Cherney; Doug Johnston on steel guitar; Kenny Post on drums; and award winning, lead guitarist Steve Piticco who sang "Chew Tobacco Rag" and Hank Williams' "I'm Satisfied with You." Linsey recently toured Europe and Scandinavia with Steve Piticco and the award winning country group South Mountain. Also featured were two fabulous, young Beckett students, Christian and Gabriel Routenburg-Evans who stepped danced and trick fiddled like professionals.

Every musical number was special, but El Cumbanchero which closed the first set and is featured on their new CD "The View From Here" was a wonderful composition, new to many in the audience; and "The Water is Wide," a number the Becketts dedicated to Mr. Chuck Joyce, whose violin Tyler now plays, was music, that like nature itself, could make you weep for its beauty.

August 9th brought another great show to Shelburne as the Ballagh Bunch took their turn on stage. The family, from near Teeswater, includes four musical kids ranging from 14-23: Devan, Michael, Paige and Matthew. For the last decade they have entertained audiences from Disney World in Florida to major festivals and theatres across Canada performing first rate shows built around traditional Irish, Celtic, Scottish and Canadian music. Award winning dancers, as well as talented musicians, the three oldest children, Devan, Michael and Paige have "multiple step dance titles, including the Canadian Open Step Dance Champions in both group and solo classes.

The group, which included Dad, Gary on bass guitar and Mom, Janice on vocals and piano, delivered the energetic excellence they promised, including original songs sung by Paige and Devon "Dancing Shoes," "By the Sea," and "Together." Devon's lovely, high voice filled the arena with the sweet vibrato of the Irish ballad "Homeward Bound" and Paige's deep, rich vocal tones showed her range in the original tunes with a voice that is well on its way to rivalling current pop stars. Both voices were a perfect balance with Mom's harmonies in "Heave on the Bowline." Devon and Paige, both fiddle players, stepped danced to "Jenny's Chickens" and the boys, also excellent dancers and fiddlers, added dimension to the show with Michael on acoustic guitar and Matthew on drums and cajon. A highlight of the show was all four Ballaghs on the fiddle for a beautiful rendition of John Newton's "Amazing Grace." The Rotarians did an amazing favour for Shelburne when they brought both these exceptional shows, The Becketts and The Ballaghs to Fiddlefest.

Nicole Rist-Petrovic is a young girl raising money to support her dream of travelling with the Me To We program to Kenya next year to help others and learn about another culture. Seen here at a yard sale raising funds and awareness.

BY ALEX SHER

According to her mother, Michelle Mayo, 14 year old, Nicole Rist-Petrovic always wanted to help others. When Nicole was in the first grade, she learned about "Homeless" people and that year for Christmas, decided to organize 30 bags with toothbrushes, tooth paste, shaving cream, a Christmas card, $5 phone card, and other much needed essential items that were donated to her for this reason and she was able to go to Toronto and deliver the bags.

Today the 14 year old has set her sights even higher and now wants to travel to Kenya with the Me To We program, <http://www.metowe.com/volunteer-travel>, in the hopes of really making a difference to those in need. Rist-Petrovic has many ideas on the subject, "I have attended concerts for the organization and I heard about the program through my school over the years. I'll be carrying water, helping to build a school, and even learning to hunt over a 21 day program. It'll be my chance to learn about another culture, it's so unlike our own. It'll be so different being there instead of watching it on TV. This way I will get to interact."

The desire to go on this journey although admirable, is not cheap. Me To We, being a non-profit organization, Rist-Petrovic must come up with the entirety of the cost which can eclipse anywhere between $4000 and $5000. To offset the cost, Rist-Petrovic, family and friends held a giant yard sale over the passed weekend. Scotiabank jumped in full hands on deck promising to match any money made at the end of the sale. The support was overwhelmingly positive, pulling in a much needed and appreciated, $2,203.75 and with Scotiabank's contribution, Rist-Petrovic brought in over $4000 towards achieving her goal.

According to single Mom, Michelle Mayo, her daughter is still shy approximately $700 and reports that many items from the yard remaining found their way to those who really needed the items, commenting, "It's great when that kind of thing happens. What goes around, comes around, paying it forward. I really can't thank everyone involved enough. Support from the community was amazing. Some people stopped and just donated without even buying anything. We've always supported Nicole in all her goals and this is no different. She'll be 15 years old when she goes and though I will have little contact, I will receive pictures sent that will likely be three days delayed. I'm very proud of Nicole."

And it seems by the response to the yard sale, Rist-Petrovic's community will be travelling with her to Kenya in supportive spirit.

If you would like to help Rist-Petrovic achieve her goal, contact, Michelle Mayo at 705-302-6574 for more information.

Is Rist-Petrovic nervous about making the long journey at such a young age? Fearlessly, "Pretty sure I am really going to enjoy the experience, and I think one time will not be enough!"

Steele determination and a heart of gold by description, the Shelburne Free Press will be following the trip scheduled for next year and provide updates to the community who generously supported a young girl's dream to help others across the world.

municipal election taking place on October 27th.

Peter Renshaw, President of the Greater Dufferin Area Chamber of Commerce, says that "the debates will provide voters with a chance to ask the candidates direct questions about the issues that matter most to them. It will also give the candidates an opportunity to speak directly to voters and present their platforms."

The debates will take place in each municipality in Dufferin between September 22nd and October 8th (see schedule below). All candidates will be invited to participate and it is the hope that this event will spark interest in the community to learn about the choices available on voting day, October 27th. "Municipal representatives directly impact our daily lives and it is important for the community to have an opportunity to hear them speak about their ideas and platforms", says Ron Munro, Project Lead for Dufferin Biz.

"It is our collective hope there will be strong attendance by residents of Dufferin County at the debates, and that they will bring forward questions about the issues that matter most to them," added Renshaw.

• Wed., Oct. 8th 7 – 9 p.m. Shelburne Grace Tipling Hall 203 Main Street East

Fraud alert in Shelburne

Shelburne Police has received several reports of similar fraud schemes from local residents.

In all of these incidents a male calls the victim over the phone and claims to be an employee, security investigator or manager of a local credit union.

The male makes inquiries over the phone about the victims banking practices while explaining he is investigating suspicious activity by a bank employee.

The male then requests that the victim makes a withdrawal from their bank account and meet him with the cash somewhere in town away from the bank. The male promises that all the money withdrawn will be deposited back into the account. The male tries to convince the victim that this strange practice is necessary due to the sensitive internal investigation.

Victims have lost up to $4200 through this scam.

Shelburne Police are reminding everyone to be extremely cautious when dealing with any financial transactions over the phone, the Internet or with door to door sales people; unless the contact was initiated by the customer through a known and trusted business.

If anyone phones you from a financial institution do not provide any information unless you know the person well or have verified the call. If you have any suspicions hang up and call the financial institution back on their regular phone number (can be found on their website, back of credit or bank cards, yellow pages), or attend the branch in person to verify the legitimacy of the inquiry. A financial institution will never request anyone to withdraw money and meet outside of the financial building.

Always verify with your branch any requests or offers you obtain over the phone, in person outside the branch, or over the Internet. If you can't verify the information be sure to contact police or the Canadian Anti-Fraud Centre.

For more information on how to protect yourself or business from fraud go the Canadian Anti-Fraud Centre website at www.antifraudcentre-centreantifraude.ca

If anyone has any information in relation to this case or any other criminal activity, they are encouraged to contact the Shelburne Police Service at 519-925-3312 or anonymously through Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477) or online at www.crimestoppersdm.com

THE FAMOUS LEGION BREAKFAST – (L to R) Little Rogue Mountain and father, Rob Mountain enjoyed the famous Breakfast at Shelburne's Legion 220 Branch during Fiddlefest 2014. Interesting fact: keeping up with tradition, Mountain's great grandfather was a jockey from France and with a last name like Mountain, of course his name was Rocky! With a great name like Rogue, we can only imagine what this youngster's future holds but we can guess it will be great.

Watch for motorcycles

During the summer months, we see many more motorcycles on the road. Often, motorcyclists are injured in collisions that could be prevented if motorists followed a few simple safety rules. Here's a few tips on how to share the road, and avoid a tragedy.

- Motorists:
- Check your mirrors and blind spots before changing lanes
 - Use your signals
 - When turning left, make sure you have sufficient room to avoid a collision
 - Don't tailgate
- Motorcyclists can contribute to road safety as well:
- Be visible, use proper lane positioning
 - Drive defensively, never assume you've been seen
 - Stay within the speed limit
 - Wear proper protective clothing
 - Never pass between lanes, or off the roadway

Our highways are for all users. Please follow these safety tips, and Share The Road!

Headwaters to share back office staff with other hospitals

On Tuesday, August 6th, the Central West Community Care Access Centre (CCAC), Headwaters Health Care Centre (Headwaters) and William Osler Health System (Osler) announced an exciting new partnership that integrates the organizations' non-clinical support functions ('back office') to better serve patients and families in the Central West region.

As part of the integration, a new non-clinical Joint Executive Management team will lead a cross-organizational, cross-functional team responsible for finance, human resources, information technology and management, redevelopment, facilities, communications and strategy operations. This team is comprised of five Joint VPs, each responsible for a functionally-based, cross-organizational portfolio with accountabilities to all three CEOs.

The Joint VPs include:

- Facilities and Redevelopment: Ann Ford (formerly VP, Development and Information Technology, Osler)
- Finance: Dave McCaig (formerly VP, Finance, Osler and Joint Chief Financial Officer, Headwaters and Osler)
- Human Resources and Organizational Development: Christine Nuernberger (formerly VP, Strategy and Communications, Central West CCAC)
- Information Management and Information Technology: Bob Varga (formerly VP, Performance Management and Accountability, Central West CCAC)
- Patient Experience, Communications and Strategy: Susan deRyk (formerly VP, Public Affairs and Corporate Strategy, Osler)

"The Central West CCAC, Headwaters and Osler have long worked together to help improve access to health care services for area patients and their families," said Cathy Hecimovich, CEO, Central West CCAC. "This voluntary cross-sector integration – a first in the province – is a milestone step towards our shared vision of a more integrated, patient-centric health care system that is easier for people to access, understand, and navigate. Together, we are strengthening the delivery of health care across our region."

The integration also includes the creation of two roles that are cross-appointed across the three organizations – a new Chief Medical Information Officer (CMIO), as well as a new Chief Patient Experience Officer (CPEO). Dr. Asim Masood, Headwaters Chief of Staff and Osler's Deputy Chief of Staff has accepted the CMIO position with a mandate to ensure that the information systems used across the organizations truly enhance the medical care of patients and clients.

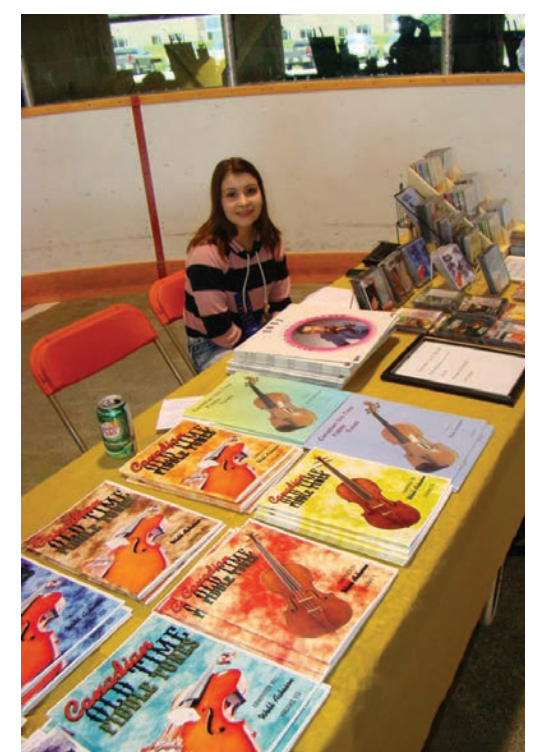

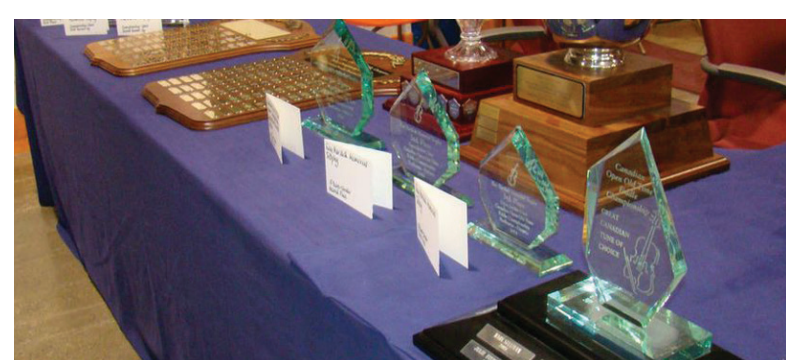

A new Chief Patient Experience Officer (CPEO) will lead innovative strategies that transform the patient experiences across the hospital and community settings. A recruitment process for the CPEO position will begin in the fall.

"This is an exciting time for health care in the Central West region," said Liz Ruegg, President and CEO, Headwaters Health Care Centre. "This new partnership focuses on putting patients first by enabling new forms of collaboration, joint investment opportunities, system-level planning, and improving our combined ability to meet the health care needs of the patients and families we serve – now and into the future."

The structure of the new Joint Executive Management team reduces the three organizations' VP complement by three (one from each organization) and over time, will result in approximately 30 per cent savings in cost of VP compensation.

"Over the past year, Osler has focused on fostering bold, innovative partnerships to create a unified health system as part of our five-year Strategic Plan," said Matthew Anderson, President and CEO, William Osler Health System. "This integration harnesses the talent, energy and innovation within our organizations' non-clinical support areas and creates new and exciting opportunities for our staff and physicians to better understand the patient experience across a broader continuum of care through cross-sector leadership."

Headwaters Health Care Centre is an 86 bed acute and complex continuing care facility, offering both inpatient and outpatient services, as well as an Emergency Department with 24/7 coverage. By offering care closer to home and putting patients first, Headwaters Health Care Centre aims to provide an exceptional experience every time.

Cubs trailing in playoff series

The Mansfield Cubs senior division team battles it out against the Ivy Leafs in game one of their first round NDBL playoff series. The first game ended in an 8-8 tie after the Cubs scored eight runs in a fourth inning at-bat.

BY BRIAN LOCKHART

The NDBL playoff series between the Mansfield Cubs and the Ivy Leafs got off to a wild start in game one of the series when the Cubs had a huge fourth inning to come from behind and score eight runs in a single at-bat.

The Cubs were trailing 3-0 at the end of the first when Ivy made a couple of smart plays and sacrificed a runner with a bunt to get into scoring position.

A second inning ground rule double drove in another run to make it a 4-0 game.

It was the fourth inning when the Cubs came alive.

After playing the first three with a side-arm style pitcher on the mound, and little success from the Mansfield squad, the Ivy team changed it up and put a fastball hurler in play.

That made all the difference for the Cubs who suddenly started getting their bats working.

Tyler Linger led off with a single to shallow centre field that drove in the first Cubs run.

Jarrett Abbott followed up with a hit to right field that brought in a second Mansfield run.

The Cubs bats kept working with singles from Jesse Ragazzon and a Bill Hawkins that tied the game at four.

Logan Wallace's hit down the first base line gave the Cubs the lead they were looking for.

It was Rob Kinsley's out-of-the-park effort that saw the ball pass left field just inside the foul-line marker and drop onto Highway 50 that brought in three runs and gave the Cubs an 8-4 lead in the opening game of the series.

"Our team's a fastball hitting team," Said Cubs second baseman Jarrett Abbott, of why the Cubs started connecting when Ivy changed up their pitcher. "First of all you've got a guy throwing slow fastballs - junk - then another guy comes in and starts throwing fastballs. You gear up, choke up, and try to put the ball in play."

The next two games didn't turn out as well for the Mansfield squad when they travelled to Ivy to play games two and three of the series.

Game two saw the Cubs shut-out when Ivy left the diamond with a 10-0 win on Friday, August 8.

The return to Ivy for game three on Sunday, August 10, again saw the Cubs come up short to trail 9-4 at the end of the seven innings of regulation play.

North Dufferin Baseball League series are won by the first team getting six points.

Teams are assigned two points for a win and a single point for a tie, meaning a best of five series could go on for a few more games if a few a games end in a tie.

After the three games in the Mansfield / Ivy series the Cubs have one point for the tie in game one. Ivy now has five points - one for the tie and two points for both winning games.

The series will return to Mansfield on Wednesday, August 13.

The Cubs must come out on top to keep this series alive. A tie or a loss means their season is done.

The game is scheduled for 6:15 at the diamond in Mansfield.

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Name: JARRETT ABBOTT
Team: MANSFIELD CUBS
Sport: BASEBALL
Position: SECOND BASE

Mansfield Cubs second baseman Jarrett Abbott has been involved with the Club since it started back in 1999.

Except for missing a year when he was in college and another year when family obligations - a new baby - kept him busy, he has been an integral part of the team.

He came up through the ranks playing minor ball in Shelburne and a season with the Creemore Braves in the Junior Division of the North Dufferin Baseball League.

He has always played the infield including time on the mound, but now spend most of his time at second base.

"I love pitching because you're right in the middle of the game the whole time. I like the pressure, but I enjoy playing second base as well," He said.

As a lifelong ball player, he said it becomes part of your lifestyle.

"I like the competition. Playing it all my life, it's part of me now, it's in my blood."

Jarrett also played in the men's slo-pitch league in Orangeville - a similar sport with more action on the field - but baseball, he said, provides a game with a more competitive edge.

"I love the intensity. You might not get a ball the whole game but you're right in the middle of it the whole time."

The Cubs are currently in the middle of their playoff series with the Ivy Leafs for the chance to advance in the NDBL finals.

Christian Perspectives – God is in control

One of my favourite times of the week is getting up early on Saturday or Sunday morning, picking up my copy of the Toronto Star newspaper from the end of the driveway, and sitting down for breakfast while I read through the paper. I'm not sure what sections you might turn to first, but to catch up on what is going on in the world I like to begin by reading the front section. This is usually followed closely by the Sports section. I need to keep up on how the Toronto teams are doing in the standings. (as of this writing the Blue Jays are still in the hunt for first place).

Sometimes reading the Saturday paper can be a little overwhelming with negative news items. Take this past weekend for example. The first headline reads "Militants' brutality draws U.S. back into Iraqi conflict". As we read more of this article we get additional information that is somewhat difficult to read. There are reports that Islamic State militants have brutally murdered hundreds of people. A nurse at a hospital was told she couldn't work there anymore because she was a Christian. Like thousands of other Christians, she has been made a refugee by the jihadists' intensifying war against religious and ethnic minorities. The rest of her story is equally unbelievable. Those of us on this side of the world have a hard time imagining what it must be like to be going through what they are going through over there.

Another article headline says "Bourque admits to killing 3 Mounties". This is another item that is equally hard to believe. We just can't understand why anyone would decide to murder three RCMP officers for no apparent reason.

I could go on with many other articles that show a very dark side of humanity. But through it all we must remember that no matter what -God is in control.

There is a song written and sung by Twila Paris with some great lyrics that I would like to share here. It is entitled "God Is In Control"

This is no time for fear
This is the time for faith and determination
Don't lose the vision here carried away by the motion
Hold on to all you hide in your heart
There is one thing that has always been true
It holds the world together
God is in control
We believe that His children will not be forsaken
God is in control

We will chose to remember and never be shaken

There is no power above or beside Him, we know

Oh, God is in control, Oh God is in control History marches on

There is a bottom line drawn across the ages
Culture can make its plan oh, but the line never changes

No matter how the deception may fly
There is one that has always been true
It will be true forever
He has never let you down

Why start to worry now?
He is still the Lord of all we see

And He is still the loving Father
Watching over you and me

Watching over everything
Watching over you, watching over me

Every little sparrow, every little thing
Oh, every little thing

Aren't we thankful that no matter what is going on in the world we can find comfort in the fact that God is in Control.

Crossroads Community Church

The Lord always meets with us when we come with expectant hearts and this morning was no different. After a wonderful week celebrating the joys of music at Fiddleville, we gave God the glory at the Community Church Worship service where all the Shelburne Ministerial churches gathered to Praise the Lord, "Dear God, we give thanks for the gift of music through which we minister to you and you fill our hearts with joy we are grateful that while we were lost you came to rescue us, forgive us for not sharing your Gospel of salvation when we should, empower us now to boldly tell of all that you've done in Jesus name, Amen."

"Excuses, we have all heard them and possibly even all used them from time to time. It is our attempt to justify and release ourselves from a particular duty by minimizing the severity of the outcome of not following through." It is nothing new, it dates back to Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden, (Genesis 3:8-13.) How easy it is to make excuses and play the age old blame game, it is a human response to avoid responsibility for our actions but God holds us accountable.

Spring forward a few of millennia and we find things haven't changed. Moses also gave a series of excuses when God called him through a burning bush out of the desert to go into Egypt to deliver His chosen people because God heard the cry of His children, (Exodus 3:9-10). Moses should have been excited at the task ahead of him, instead he gave a list of reasons why he couldn't, and shouldn't do it. How do we respond to a similar task? When Jesus asks, "Therefore, go and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit," Matthew 28:19, are we quick to share His love and invite people to church or do we make excuses? How about with our quiet time with Him praying and reading our Bibles, do we make excuses?

Moses may have been happy about the deliverance of the Jews until God required something of him, Moses felt inadequate, possibly scared so he made excuses, (Exodus 3:11). However in verse 12 God reassured Moses that He would be with him. When Jesus asks us to make disciples of all nations, it may feel overwhelming but Jesus reassures us of His presence too in Matthew 28:20," Teach these new disciples to obey all the commands I have given you. And be sure of this: I am with you always, even to the end of the age." We do not go for Him, but He goes with us into whatever situation He calls us. Moses thought he had many legitimate excuses, he did not feel adequate, he knew he was wanted for murder back in Egypt, he felt he had no authority, he thought no one would believe him, and alas he pointed out that he wasn't good with words, (Exodus 3:13, 4:1, 10-11). God understood and at every excuse He had the perfect reassuring answer and God promised all that Moses would need to accomplish the task, "God said I AM that I AM, I give you authority, I will be with You, I will convince people with signs and wonders, I will send Aaron your brother.(Exodus 3:14-17, Exodus 4:8, Exodus 4:16). Even after all of God's reassurances and promises, Moses still pleaded to send someone else.

Beloved God gives strength to those who believe and trust Him, he did so for David against Goliath, because David stood up in faith, God equipped him and gave him victory, (1 Samuel 7:45). He does the same for us today, (Mark 16:17). God is the same yesterday, today and tomorrow and He will not ask us to do anything He will not equip us to do; He has given us all different gifts and talents to accomplish what He wills. He calls us to share the Good News with others, to serve our fellowman in love and to forgive one another for His name's sake. Before returning to His Father, Jesus promised a gift, which is the Holy Spirit, all we need to do is trust Him, be ready and willing to be His lips proclaiming God's love and his arms to receive all who call on the name of the Lord. This week let us get ready to go where ever He asks, He asks us to make disciples of all nations, to love our neighbors as ourselves, so let's start right here, right now in Shelburne our own corner of the world. Asherey Shalom!

Rev. Gordon Horsley of Abiding Place Fellowship welcomes Father Mark Curtis to the Fiddle Church Service on behalf of the Shelburne Ministerial August 10th. "It is such a privilege to have him come join us," said Rev. Horsley. Father Curtis, now an Anglican minister, was formerly known as Canada's singing priest as well as the priest of St. John's Catholic Church in Dundalk back in 1998, where he says he has "many fond memories." Father Curtis returned to the Fiddle event this year for approximately his 10th sermon there. He first began preaching at the Shelburne Ministerial service, which combines seven area churches, back in the days of Rev. Bruce Besley. "It is always a privilege to come and share the word of God with the people," he said. Music was led by Greg Holmes and the Shelburne Fiddlers; Joe Allingham was the pianist for the service. Speakers from the Ministerial included: Rev. Gordon Horsley, Rev. Don Hume, Rev. Stephanie Pellow, Rev. David Howes, and Rev. Bob McLellan. Churches included: Abiding Place Fellowship, St. Paul's Anglican, Bethel Bible Chapel, Trinity & Primrose United, St. John's Catholic, Grace Church of the Nazarene, and Crossroads Wesleyan Church. There were over 500 parishioners at the service, where donations of food were accepted on behalf of the Shepherd's Cup-board food bank.

Shelburne Legion news

BY LESA PEAT

Wow! What a great Fiddleville. It all started with one person winning the $1000 jackpot on Wednesday, congratulations. Rod Salisbury and The Leitch brother's were great on Wing and Meat Spin Thursday, Fiddlestix "shook" the Warriors Hall Friday, once the sound was as just they were amazing. Connie Duguay and her Jamboree friends had a great time keeping everyone dancing in Museum Room. Saturday the Pipers thrilled the crowd and at night DJ Terence packed the house. Thank you to all the entertainers, Shelburne Police Department, Trevor Downey, Kevin Hill, Foodland, Shelburne Fresh, No Frills, Town of Shelburne, Rick Stringer, Freeman Aluminum and Labatt's in helping us have a Amazing Fiddleville. A great big thank you to the staff and the many volunteers. Job well done everyone. The Ladies Auxiliary will be taking a break from their luncheon in August. Our next Wing Night is Friday August 22nd, with entertainment by The Pedestrians.

The Rotary's newest edition to Fiddlefest events, the Barn Dance on Wednesday night, drew a crowd of dancers and jamboree musicians such as Bruce Wilson of Orangeville centre stage. The evening's musicians were backed by The Brewery Boys.

The Brewery Boys kept the music playing throughout the evening at the Rotary's newest edition to Fiddlefest, the Barn Dance at the Shelburne arena, on August 6th. The band comprised of Greg Holmes on guitar and vocals, Brent Eby on base and vocals, Ian Leith on the fiddle, Warren Snell acoustic guitar and vocals, and Larry Johnston on drums, moved smoothly from number to number as each quest musician took their turn at the jamboree.

About 130 people from the area and as far as Barrie, Caledon, Grand Valley, and Inglewood came out to enjoy a night of dancing, listening and socializing to kick off Fiddlefest activities. Kevin Fell, an announcer from Classic Rock 945, sister station to CKNX radio in Wingham, was master of ceremonies for the evening and Ernie Shoebridge was caller for the square dance.

Sandra Gallagher, Chair of the Fiddle Contest Committee, said the Committee was very happy with the turnout to the first time event and that tickets to all the shows had been going as expected. Reports from Bill Waite, in charge of contest registration counted 65 contestants registered for the competition Wednesday night. Sandra Gallagher noted that the Beckett concert tickets had sold exceptionally well, and that everyone was looking forward to the popular brother and sister duo, Lindsey and Tyler

Beckett, both previous winners of Shelburne's fiddle competition.

Highlights at the Barn Dance included the Shelburne Fiddlers with Joan Wallace, Jean Cameron, Carol Beatty, Greg Holmes and Donna Aldcorn. Teen performer, Melissa Mouke sang a lovely rendition of "Jealous Heart" and brought the dancers to the floor with "Crooked Stove Pipe" on the fiddle.

Greg Holmes was also the organizer, Master of Ceremonies and back up piano player at the Friday morning Jam Session at the CDRC. A faithful crowd of fiddle fans arrived at the Town and Country Room by 9:30 am Friday. Fiddlers and fiddle lovers continued to trickle in as the morning drew on and join the group to play and listen as the individual musicians took to the stage with their favourite tunes.

Two local teen step dancers joined the fun, 19 year old Brianna Brown of Mulmur, who has been seen dancing on the Grace Tipling Stage with the Scott Wood's Band, and 13 year old Darcey Baker from Riverview, one of Brianna's former dance students. They treated the audience to a step dance duet, Ottawa Valley style, choreographed by Chanda Leahy of Chanda's School of Dance in Orangeville.

The Shelburne Fiddlers Jean Cameron, Carol Beatty, Greg Holmes, Donna Aldcorn and Alex Aldcorn were all on hand. Donna and her Dad, Alex, from Badjeros brought some diversity to the musical morning with a couple of Country favourites on both fiddle and guitar, with Donna singing a lovely rendition of "Paper Roses." Other fiddlers included Sigg Dobrowolski from Shelburne and Anne Marie Regeher from Niagara on the Lake. Anne Marie, who also accompanied the fiddlers on the piano, has attended Fiddlefest since 1976. She learned to play piano at 30 years old and fiddle at 48. She won the first fiddle contest she entered near Tilsonburg, Ontario, "I won $100 and never quit after that," she laughed.

Competition judge, Webb Acheson, a regular at the early morning jam session, delighted the audience with "Crooked Stove Pipe" and accompanied the step dancers with "Devil's Dream" and Mason's Apron." Webb, who is 84 years old, has been a judge at the Shelburne Fiddle Contest for 38 years and says he "knows all the fiddlers accept the very young ones." Other than Pembroke, Webb has been a judge at every competition in both Ontario and Quebec and has composed over 450 popular fiddle tunes. As a teacher, Webb tells his students that the most important thing "is to practice every day whether they are young or old." All in all, about 50 people were at the event, and by the end of the morning the stage had a floor full of fiddlers.
