Another successful Torch Run for Special Olympics

BY MICHELLE JANZEN

Area law enforcement officers are calling the annual Torch Run for Special Olympics a great success.

The Ontario Law Enforcement Torch Run is a community-based, province-wide event that sees the "Flame of Hope" carried across Ontario by members of Law Enforcement agencies from across the province.

All funds raised through Ontario Law Enforcement Torch Run events are directed into program support that directly affects all community Special Olympic Ontario (SOO) programs.

Funds are then put into community programs and help pay for various expenses including: games travel, accommodations, meals, staff support to the field, grants to new community programs, volunteer and athlete training, administration and information/promotional materials and development initiatives like the "School Program" which opens up opportunities to new athletes.

At Shelburne's Torch Run, held Tuesday, May 30, Special Olympian Ryan MacBean started and ended the race holding the torch.

The event saw officers from Shelburne joined by other area emergency services, community organizations and businesses in a 4.5 km run carrying the Special Olympic Torch through town. The event raises awareness and funds for Special Olympics Ontario.

A great turnout for Town Pharmacy's SickKids Fundraiser

BY MICHELLE JANZEN

Sanjay Lekhi, owner of Shelburne Town Pharmacy, and his wife, Shalini, held their third annual Sick Kids Fundraiser in the Foodland/Giant Tiger Plaza on Saturday, May 27, which saw many people in attendance.

With performances by Troupe Adore, demonstrations by Dance Fuel and Classical Martial Arts, there were appearances by Sharon Morden of Feral Cat Rescue, games, face painting, a BBQ, raffles and even Elvis, aka Terry Dieter, who came to help raise funds.

Volunteer firefighters from the Shelburne & District Fire Department were also in attendance handing out information sheets and free gifts for the kids, as well as the local Shelburne Police Department and representatives from Dufferin County EMS.

"We will still be accepting donations until the end of next week, and at that time will make a final tally," says Sanjay. "Once again,

I am overwhelmed with the response of this event and thank the community for their generosity and support. Without them this would not be possible."

This is the third year for the fundraiser which saw $1,462 raised the first year, followed by $2,251 the second year, that in turn was gratefully increased thanks to ScotiaBank matching that amount, bringing the total to $4,527.

In the past, Sanjay has told the Shelburne Free Press, "Many of my clients are young children that I see after being discharged from SickKids. As adults, we sometimes contribute to our bad health, however these newborns and young children don't choose or contribute to the illness, sickness, and/or diseases they have. I would hate to see the quality of their care decline because of lack of funding."

With funds still coming in, Sanjay is hopeful that the amount raised this year will surpass last year's.

Cameras roll for the Films For Food Festival

BY MARNI WALSH

The Films For Food Festival this Thursday, June 1, at 7 p.m. is a great opportunity for Shelburne and area residents to dress up and view the award winning films of local students.

Dress formal and walk the red carpet at Centre Dufferin District High School from 7 pm to 9 pm and "watch some of the best student films this side of Hollywood," says CDDHS teacher Len Guchardi.

The event showcases some of the best student films created this past semester at the Shelburne high school.

Pictured here, the students shone at the Youth Fusion Film Festival in Toronto on March 25 where their films were nominated in all eight categories and received awards for Best Cinematography, Best Sound Editing, Best Art Direction, Best Poster Design, and Best Film Editing.

"I am totally proud of their work," says Mr. Guchardi.

The students attended a Gala in Montreal on May 11 and another on May 25.

Admission to the "Films For Food Festival" is by donation of a non-perishable food item for the Shelburne's Shepherd Cupboard Food Bank.

ONTARIO ENERGY BOARD NOTICE TO CUSTOMERS OF HYDRO ONE NETWORKS INC.

Hydro One Networks Inc. has applied to raise its electricity distribution rates and other charges.

Learn more. Have your say.

Hydro One Networks Inc. has applied to the Ontario Energy Board to raise its electricity distribution rates effective January 1, 2018 and continuing each year for another 4 years, until December 31, 2022. If the application is approved, a typical residential customer of Hydro One Networks Inc., using 750 kWh per month, would see increases as set out in the table below:

2018 an increase of $2.79 per month
2019 an increase of $2.47 per month

2020 an increase of $2.31 per month
2021 an increase of $1.95 per month

2022 an increase of $2.23 per month

Other customers, including businesses, may be affected as well.

Hydro One Networks Inc. has also acquired the electricity distribution assets of Norfolk Power, Haldimand County Hydro and Woodstock Hydro. The distribution rates for the former customers of these distributors will remain frozen at current levels until December 31, 2020. As part of this application, on January 1, 2021, and January 1, 2022, the distribution rates for these customers will also be increasing.

If the application is approved, a typical former residential customer of these three distributors, using 750 kWh per month, would see increases as set out in the table below:

Former Utility	2021	Increase	2022
Norfolk Power	$3.18 per month		$1.09 per month
Haldimand County Hydro	$4.52 per month		$1.09 per month
Woodstock Hydro	$1.08 per month		$0.84 per month

Other former customers of these distributors, including businesses, may be affected as well.

Hydro One Networks Inc. has also applied for new service charges and for adjustments to many of its specific service charges, including increases to charges for the collection of accounts, for disconnection, reconnection and removal of load control devices and for access to Hydro One Networks Inc. power poles. You are encouraged to review the application carefully to determine whether you may be affected by these changes.

The Ontario government has introduced the Fair Hydro Act, 2017 that, if passed, would implement electricity rate reductions starting in the summer of 2017. The amounts set out above are provided before the application of any credits that would be implemented under the Fair Hydro Act, 2017.

Shelburne marks Tourism Week with flag raising

BY BROCK WEIR

Shelburne recognizes the importance of tourism to this community and has taken to the skies to prove it.

On Monday morning, to mark the start of Tourism Week in the Town of Shelburne, Municipal CAO John Telfer was joined by representatives from Headwaters Tourism to hoist the flag at Town Hall.

Council recently proclaimed May 28 – June 3 as Tourism week within the Town, encouraging all citizens to recognize, value and nurture the significant role of tourism and the tourism business “in the fabric of our community.”

In a statement, the Town said, “Ontario’s tourism industry is responsible for $29.8 billion in annual tourism receipts in the province each year; and supports 372,000 tourism jobs; and provides $5.1 billion annually to provincial tax revenues; and contributes more than $32.7 billion annually to Ontario’s GDP.

“The Town of Shelburne actively supports the vision of Headwaters Tourism to promote the pan-region of Headwaters (which encompasses the Town of Erin, Dufferin County, The Town of Shelburne and the Town of Caledon) as Ontario’s premier rural tourism destination; and supports their work to integrate tourism into the Town’s economic development undertakings, helping to build a robust and thriving tourism industry.

“Tourism Week is an opportunity to highlight the value and collective impact of investing in regional tourism, and to recognize the award-winning work of Headwaters Tourism to raise the profile of the region, and to be a leader in the tourism industry both provincially and nationally.”

The importance of tourism was set to be underscored this week by the County of Dufferin, a key component of Wednesday night’s Joint Council meeting held in Mono to go over the Dufferin County Economic Development Strategic Plan.

In the plan, Dufferin County is cited as a growing tourism destination, boasting draws when it comes to arts, culture, culinary attractions, scenery, equestrian programs, and natural beauty.

“There is substantial potential to grow the tourism sector further, and, with it, many of the supporting agriculture, food, recreational and creative sector activities on which the area can build its reputation,” reads the draft of the Strategic Plan.

According to the document, Shelburne and Mono are financial contributors to Headwaters Tourism, which spearheads such initiatives as the annual Visitors Guide. It calls on participating municipalities to develop multi-year plans to draw visitors into the area.

“The municipal-level effort and interface with Headwaters Tourism will be strengthened where the municipalities have developed multi-year strategic plans for the tourism sector in concert with their partners and in consultation with Headwaters Tourism,” say planners. “A tourism strategy has not yet been developed for Dufferin County. It should be a near-term objective. Orangeville has such a strategy which was done in 2010 with a ten-year horizon. Dufferin County could choose to develop its first strategy somewhat in parallel with the renewal of Orangeville’s. Areas that merit attention as part of the Strategy include visitor servicing, way-finding signage and social media, and attracting investment in accommodation and hotels.”

Have your say – Do you think Shelburne and Dufferin County as a whole have untapped potential as tourism destinations? Send your thoughts and ideas to shelburnefreepress@gmail.com.

One Voice One Team hope to make program “SWOLE” with expansion

Over 60 CDDHS students have helped to paint Dufferin Oaks as part of One Voice One Team, brought to the school by teacher Mr. Greenfield. This year’s participants are looking forward to introducing the program to local public schools in hopes of having it carry on for years to come.

Their team brings an incredible range and diversity of life experiences and journeys of excellence.

Each team member has inspirational life stories that are used to reach, empower and enlighten the hearts and minds of youth today so they can become the leaders of today and tomorrow.

Through their stories, expertise and methodology, they have created many programs that have been proven to help youth make the necessary decisions that help move them towards success in their lives and in the community.

Through customized assemblies, school programs and their “S.W.O.L.E.” camps, One Voice One Team uses cognitive and physical activities to introduce and reinforce key success principles.

“S.W.O.L.E.” is their flagship program and stands for: Self Respect, Work Hard, Overcome Adversity, Lead by Example, and Excellence.

Upon successful program completion, participants are inducted as lifetime members of the “S.W.O.L.E.” family and become advocates of the “S.W.O.L.E.” doctrine. This is demonstrated through their commitment to being hard working and responsible leaders at home, school and in their community.

Many youths actively engage through community-focused partner organizations like Habitat for Humanity, Big Brothers Big Sisters and Covenant House, to name a few.

In every program, One Voice One Team’s delivery teams include high performance athletes, community leaders and accomplished motivational speakers. These delivery teams facilitate powerful sessions that include inspirational storytelling, fitness activities and mentorship.

Through this program, students from CD-DHS were at Dufferin Oaks, on Friday, May 26, helping to clean and paint various different parts of the facility, which included painting trim work and scraping paint off equipment to get ready for repainting.

One Voice One Team, exists to empower youth to utilize their extraordinary leadership skills and talents to better themselves and their community, and based on how happy Kevin Norris, head of maintenance at Dufferin Oaks was, it is safe to say the program is a success!

Ottawa Journal: Liberal Government reducing Canada's commitment to fighting ISIS

BY DAVID TILSON, MP
DUFFERIN-CALEDON

The recent Manchester concert attack was a tragedy and reminds us that terrorism is an ongoing international problem and that Canada, together with our allies, must maintain our commitment to fighting it.

Following the attack, media are reporting that the current Liberal Government has quietly reduced Canada's contribution to the international coalition to defeat ISIS, which is most concerning. It leaves Canadians with the valid question of whether this action by the current government could represent the end of Canada's military involvement in the anti-ISIS fight, as the current military deployment is scheduled to wrap up at the end of June.

On May 15, the current Liberal government withdrew one of the two CP-140 Aurora surveillance planes that had been flying missions over northern Iraq and Syria since the fall of 2014. The Royal Canadian Air Force's (RCAF) Auroras are a world-class intelligence, surveillance, and reconnaissance platform.

Their capability to provide comprehensive battlefield intelligence has been integral to coalition efforts. Removing 50 per cent of this capability is a slap in the face to our allies and harms Canada's international reputation.

The fact the current Liberal government's decision to withdraw one of the two CP-140 Aurora surveillance planes was made quietly without any announcement is further proof that this current government has no intention to be open and transparent with Canadians when it comes to Canada's military deployments.

In contrast, our previous Conservative government gave regular technical briefings on the activities of our men and women in uniform. It's unacceptable that the Liberal government is making major operational decisions without informing Canadians.

Furthermore, removing one of Canada's CP-140 Auroras from the fight against ISIS is additional proof that Canada is not "back" on the world stage; we are, in fact, withdrawing from the world stage.

The current Liberal government's track record for being open and transparent with Canadians on defence matters has been weak to date. Defence Minister Sajjan has already once attempted to hide our allies' dissatisfaction with the current government's operational decisions. The fact is he has no credibility left on this or any other issue.

In light of the Manchester bombing, the last thing Canada should do is withdraw from the fight against jihadi terrorists.

The Conservative Opposition calls on the current Liberal government to finally take the threat posed by radical Islamic terrorism seriously and ensure Canada does its part to bring the fight to ISIS.

Cabinet documents show high hydro rates will return after the election

BY SYLVIA JONES, MPP
DUFFERIN-CALEDON

On May 11, it was revealed through an internal Liberal cabinet document that hydro rates will continue to skyrocket after the 2018 election. We also know from the independent Financial Accountability Officer, Ontario's budget watchdog, that this Liberal hydro hoax could cost billions.

In fact, while the government is providing short term relief of $24 billion, doing so will cost up to $93 billion: nearly quadruple the proposed savings!

Ontarians want hydro relief, but they do not want to jeopardize future generations to do so.

Since the Hydro Crisis began, my leader Patrick Brown and I have been calling on the government to address the systemic problems with the province's electricity system. Specifically, the PC Party has been calling on the government to rein in executive salaries, stop signing bad contracts for energy we do not need, and stop the fire sale of Hydro One.

Unfortunately, the Liberals decided to simply kick the can down the road, neglecting to deal with these systemic issues.

The government has decided to offer a short-term solution instead of dealing with the systemic issues. As a result, the average monthly residential bill starts to rise again in 2018, meaning the average monthly hydro bill will rise to be over 36.5% higher than they were in 2010, four years after the election.

Another important revelation from these cabinet documents is the return of the debt retirement charge (DRC) in a newly named "Clean Energy Adjustment".

The original DRC was created to pay off Hydro One's $7.8 billion stranded debt, but in 2011 the Auditor General revealed the government had already collected enough money to pay the DRC. When this information was made public the government removed the DRC from residential bills, but did not remove from businesses'. Now the new DRC is returning to your bill to pay for the massive debt the government is incurring with their hydro plan.

Unsurprisingly, the Premier and the Minister of Energy failed to mention the return of this charge during the release of their plan.

When the government announced their plan, Ontarians hoped that the government had finally listened to them and was going to deal with skyrocketing hydro rates. Instead, it appears the government decided to create a short term program which will cost Ontarian taxpayers billions in the long-run and will see a return to skyrocketing hydro rates.

CURLING FUN FOR A VERY GOOD CAUSE

Tuesday, March 28, was a tremendous day for a wonderful cause, the Inaugural Royal LePage RCR Realty Ltd., Curling Bonspiel in Shelburne.

The curling fun day was hosted by the Shelburne Office, and was well attended by Royal LePage RCR Realty Ltd., curlers from the Alliston, Beeton, Bolton, Dundalk, Newmarket, Orangeville, Schomberg & Shelburne Offices.

The bonspiel was open to all Royal LePage RCR Realty Ltd., associates and the organizers were delighted by the turnout, with 12 teams – comprised of both seasoned curlers and absolute beginners – competing for glory and bragging rights.

Money was raised for the Royal LePage Shelter Foundation through a very dramatic ham shoot, where players purchased opportunities to draw curling stones as close as possible to the ham, and then purchased even more tickets for the opportunity to knock their fellow competitors' stones away from the prize.

The ham shoot, proceeds from the entries, and a successful ticket draw, helped to raise $682 for the local Family Transition Place.

SMILES BRIGHTEN MARKET OPENING – No sun, but lots of smiles for the opening day of the Shelburne Farmers' Market on May 25 as cloudy skies brought rain and drizzle throughout the afternoon. Faithful patrons, not to be deterred by the weather, came to greet the return of their favourite vendors and pick up the freshest of local produce at the Market at First and Owen Sound Streets in Shelburne. Children's activities and hot chocolate were served up by Troupe Adore and Trinity church inside the United Church providing a sanctuary from the rain. The Shelburne Farmers Market runs every Thursday from 3 pm - 7 pm.

JUNO BOUND

Dufferin Digital History Project students took flight to Normandy, France on Tuesday with history teacher and DHP founder Neil Orford (front right) in the lead. This is the third time that the DHP students have been invited by the Juno Beach Centre (JBC), to act as "Canadian Youth Ambassadors" at the June 6 D-Day Commemoration Ceremonies, and the last time Mr. Orford will lead the inspirational excursions. CDDHS has "a long relationship with the JBC," says Mr. Orford, "going there many times with the Battlefields Tours, most recently the Vimy 100th Ceremony Tour that visited the JBC on April 6. Twelve DHP students attending this year's ceremonies will participate in a ceremony at Beny Sur Mer Canadian Military Cemetery on June 6 and the full commemoration at Juno Beach later on that same day. Two students will read the Act of Remembrance in French and English as well as laying flags from students across Canada on the graves of the 369 soldiers who died on D-Day 1944." The group is proudly wearing jackets featuring the official Juno Beach Centre logo, which they have been given special permission to use.

Alzheimer Society tackles the issues of our aging population

BY PETER RICHARDSON

Shelburne Council's Monday night meeting, was blessedly uneventful.

First up was a presentation by Tom Reid, standing in for Jennifer McCallum, from the Alzheimer Society of Dufferin County regarding a series of initiatives to assist seniors in dealing with common problems encountered by our aging population.

Entitled Aging Well in Dufferin, the initiatives are the work of some twenty different organizations in Dufferin County. The events will be held each Thursday in June and revolve around social media platforms such as Twitter and Facebook.

The first of these will be this Thursday, June 1 and is aimed at falls prevention, the cause of most injuries to seniors.

They are asking people to take photographs of older adults engaged in physical exercise and strength building, or using mobility aids, and to post them using the hashtags #ItTakesACommunityToPreventFalls and #AgingWellInDufferin.

The June 8 meeting centre on social isolation, another common occurrence amongst the elderly. For this they ask for photos of older adults engaging in social activities, volunteering, or interacting with family and friends. Post these, with the hashtags: #Staying Connected and #AgingWellInDufferin.

June 15 addresses Elder Abuse and draws attention to World Elder Abuse Awareness Day. The photo here is of people with an older adult in their community and they should tag: @ElderAbuseOnt and use the hashtags: #WEAAD-2017AWID, #It'sNotRight, #EAO, #AgingWellInDufferin.

In support of this and to help raise awareness, June 17 is Seniors Appreciation Day and Aging Well in Dufferin are planning to have a booth at the Orangeville Farmers Market where they will have handouts and staff to inform the public of the programmes.

Mayor Bennington, who has a personal interest in this initiative, as his own mother recently fell and broke both her hip and her shoulder, felt that Shelburne should and would want to do more than simply endorse the idea and suggested that a table and literature would be welcomed at the Shelburne Street Festival, also held on June 17.

CROSSWALKS

Two frequently recurring issues at Council reared their heads again Monday.

The first was the issue of the Town's crosswalk. CAO John Telfer stated that a previous solution to the matter of aggressive drivers trying to pass on the right when a car is stopped for the crosswalk, was not immediately acceptable to the MOT, and so he is recommending to Council that permanent delineation markers be installed instead of the proposed curbs and gutters.

These markers are permanently fastened into the roadway and effectively reduce the crosswalk area to two single lanes, one going West, and one East. Trying to drive around or over these flexible markers, would cause significant damage to the vehicle concerned and should curtail the dangers of cars passing within the crosswalk area.

The markers are flexible enough to allow for snow removal and are highly visible at night, thanks to multiple reflective surfaces on each one.

POLICE OPPOSE COURT MOVE

The second issue, was the moving of the court for Provincial Offences from Orangeville to Caledon East. For the second time, Shelburne Police presented a letter asking Council to oppose this move with Dufferin County Council.

This will be the second time that Council has endorsed taking the Police Force's concerns to County Council.

At issue is the added cost and inconvenience to both the accused and the police of having to travel all the way to Caledon East in order to address a Provincial Offence matter in court. For the police forces involved, the costs are dramatic, with overtime pay for the officers, travel costs, wear and tear on their vehicles and lost time "on the job."

The problem has been created by the Criminal Courts Division of the Ministry of Justice wishing to use the Orangeville court room for criminal cases and being willing to pay Dufferin County substantially for the use of their courtroom.

It was suggested and encouraged by Mayor Bennington that as all the local police authorities were adversely affected, and thus opposed to the move, that this would be an excellent issue for discussion at the All Councils meeting being held in Mono's Council Chambers on Wednesday evening.

NEW WINDOWS, CANADA 150 & MORE

In other matters, Council approved the installation of the new windows in Town Hall at a cost of $63,697.66 plus HST, which was well under budget, as well as a request by the Heritage Music Festival, to have the Public Works Department set up the park, prior to the festival beginning.

They approved the granting of the grounds maintenance contract for the soccer pitches and ball diamonds to GDB Enterprises Inc., who do business as The Lawnscaapes Team. Their bid was $14,398.64, including the HST, for the season.

The Rotary Club has been granted permission to apply for a Canada 150 Grant to offset the costs of the proposed Splash Pad and also to erect a new sign at the entrance to Town, replacing the existing ones. The Lions Club was also granted permission to have their 100 Anniversary Commemorative Flag flown on the Town flagpole from June 16 until June 24 in honour of the 100th Anniversary of Lions Clubs International.

Junior Cubs shut-out New Lowell Knights

BY BRIAN LOCKHART

It took a few innings for the Mansfield Junior Cubs to get the bats moving in the Tuesday, May 23 night game against the New Lowell Knights, but the later innings proved successful with a good offensive effort by the squad.

The Tuesday night game at the diamond in Mansfield started out as a real pitchers' duel with hurlers from both teams allowing few hits in the first three innings.

On the mound for Mansfield, Jordan Metz didn't allow any hits in the first inning and only one man made it to base in the second.

Knights' pitcher Brandon Peart made a spectacular catch for the first out in the second on a line drive hit right back at the pitcher's mound.

A big hit to the centre field fence for a double put two Mansfield players on base with two out. That was followed by a walk that loaded the bases but the Cubs couldn't finish and the inning ended with a high flying snag at second base that retired the side.

From there the Cubs started getting in the runs while playing some solid defence that ended the game with an 8-0 Mansfield win.

It's too early in the season to tell how the four-team Junior Division of the NDBL is shaping up.

The Cubs had a couple of road games on the schedule.

They will return to the diamond in Mansfield on Sunday, June 4, for a double header against the Midland Twins.

The first game will get underway at 2:30 p.m.

The second game of the day will follow with a scheduled 5:00 p.m. start.

Torch Run shows mutual admiration

Constable Jeff McLean of the Shelburne Police Services was passed the torch of organizing the event by fellow officer Constable Paul Neumann this year, and says "It was my pleasure organizing the event this year, and I'm hoping to continue to carry on to show support and celebrate the athlete's accomplishments."

This year's run saw approximately 75 runners participating individually or in teams, which ended with a barbeque by employees of the Auto Centre.

Food was provided by No Frills, while Pete's Deli supplied what every police event needs: coffee and donuts!

A special thanks to KTH of Shelburne who donated a whopping $1,500 to the event, the Canadian Bath Bomb Co. who donated bath bombs to all participants, as well as Shelburne Home Hardware and Steven's BBQ for their contribution of raffle prizes.

"The special athletes are part of our community and they really do look up to us as law enforcement officers and we want to show them the appreciation that we have for them and their hard work they put into competing in these games and just want to give back to them," declared Constable McLean. "Many thanks to all our sponsors, run teams, volunteers, and the community as a whole for continuing to support this worthy cause and making this event a success year after year!"

As of press time, the total raised was not yet available. Please watch for updates on the amount raised this year in a future edition.

357 quilt blocks for Ronald McDonald House

PHOTO & STORY
BY MICHELLE JANZEN

AJ Cavey, owner of Cobwebs and Caviar, sits amongst the 357 quilt blocks, and four complete quilt tops that have been made by local quilters and are being donated to the Canadian Quilters Association's (CQA) Quilting Bee.

With a goal of making 1,000 quilts for kids at Ronald McDonald Houses across Canada, AJ Cavey tells us as of May 24, "there have already been 800 quilts made and with lots more to come, and it looks like they will exceed their goal."

The blocks donated to Cobwebs & Caviar are being made into quilt tops in the near future before being sent onto the CQA to be finished off for those spending time at Ronald McDonald Houses.

"Quilters and, more specifically, our quilters are an amazing bunch!" says Cavey

Christian Perspectives: Humanity is in an uneasy state

BY REV. CANDICE BIST

Humanity is in an uneasy state. Need I expand? You know what I mean. Just look deep into the next face that comes across your horizon and you will know things are not as they should be.

How did we forget the marvel of our existence and the beauty of our breath?

We are in trouble. And the trouble at the heart of the matter is we have forgotten who we are. Or perhaps it is, we never knew. No matter. If we – and by we, I mean humanity – are to survive, we have work to do.

The next evolutionary change in humanity is one of consciousness and cannot be accomplished without our co-operation.

We must move from a place where we see ourselves as separate to a place where we know ourselves to be intimately intertwined with all others, with the universe, known and unknown, the smoky edges of our inner cosmologies leaking out to breed with the stars. We are all one is not a bumper sticker. It is truth. Though truth, I should caution, is a mercurial beast, best determined by divine energies of which we know little.

Still, we must lean against it, press in its direction with persistence as best we can, for it is a creative endeavour.

But it is the how of the matter that interests me, and clearly others. How are we to search out truth? How are we to alter the course of humanity, hell bent as it is on its own destruction? How is humanity to value the stardust that is its essence, to stand continually in awe at the night sky, and see in each creation, be it snail or constellation, the miraculous? How shall we see our flesh as embedded with divine spirit, our breath as palpable evidence of the sacred?

We don't know the way forward, because the way forward is not yet imagined, either in the particulars of the moment or the grand sweep of time.

We are in a time of darkness, uncertainty. Humanity is collectively undergoing a dark night of the soul. And that is good, for we need to hesitate. We need to have a time of not knowing, not allowing ourselves to continue business as usual. We are behaving badly and we need a collective time out.

We need to partner ourselves with the vast wisdom beyond our everyday grasp and allow it to direct our actions, to work in concert with our own particularities of place and person, for the issues before us, no matter their guise – economic disparity, environmental upheaval, political enmity, personal despair and, at least in the western world, pandemic depression – are at heart matters of the spirit. It is spiritual experience we are to seek out, it

Celebrating the 25th Anniversary of the Quiet Garden Movement
 'Sharing outdoor space for the inner journey'
 Spend a Quiet Sunday afternoon visiting three gardens that have been set aside for a Time of Contemplation:
 * "Meditative Gardens of Primrose Wood Church"
 * "Landscape Garden located by the waterfront"
 * "Landscape Garden and Vegetable Garden"
 All three gardens will offer materials to aid in your contemplation, sheets for individual meditation, journaling, sketching, reading, and writing, as well as light refreshments and endless inspiration. Noble silence is encouraged.
 Tables $10
 Tables may be purchased at the Shelburne Library, 7000 Central Street, Shelburne, Ontario on the day of the event or the week before. For further information, go to our website: www.quietgardens.com or email: quietgardens@outlook.com
 The tour is held by Primrose Wood Church which is a non-profit organization and the proceeds of the tour will be used to support the work of the church.
 Quiet time spent in a garden is a wonderful gift. It reminds us that nothing comes to birth without darkness, and nothing flowers without light.
 Come and be blessed with the precious gift of heart time and soul time.

our ken, are to be approached with the humble stance of the artist, heart ever open for new inspiration, mind quiet, a willingness to embrace new possibility without being able to imagine the finished result. And this requires one of the things that is in short supply these days: silence, stillness, empty space.

Our technologies, for all their gift, are drowning us in noise, pressing in upon us and leaving us with no place to actually think differently. That is why the Quiet Garden Movement out of England is such a revelation – and a needed part of the revolution in consciousness which we are – hopefully – about to embrace. This year the international movement celebrates twenty-five years of "sharing outdoor space for the inner journey."

Rev. Dr. Rowan Williams, formerly the 104th Archbishop of Canterbury, and a great supporter of Quiet Gardens, states simply that "The ancient tradition of silent contemplation is as important to the modern mind as it was to those of our forebears."

"The Quiet Garden Movement nurtures low cost, accessible, outdoor space for prayer, contemplation, rest and inspiration in a variety of settings, such as private homes, churches, schools and hospitals." (quietgarden.org).

is deep wisdom we are to access.

Yet, not being biddable, this deep knowing, these vast understandings currently beyond

So, you may be surprised and delighted to know that we have our very own Quiet Garden in the neighbourhood at the Primrose United Church, which joined the movement last year. (quietgarden.org/find-gar-of this year, Primrose United Church is hosting a little Meditation Garden Tour which includes this garden as well as two others, one with a labrynth. You will see posters about town, and can call Trinity United Church for further information or

If we are to find our way forward in any kind of sane manner, learn-one another, all opportunities to take time to enjoy stillness, quiet, and in-who garden and share their beauty with others.

May grace abide.
