Celebrate Family Day at DCMA

The Dufferin County Museum and Archives (DCMA) is a great place to spend time together as a family. The historic buildings and the charm of the museum will have you feeling warm and fuzzy during the cold of winter.

Drop in to the DCMA between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. on Monday, February 16th, for hands-on activities like cookie decorating and mask making. Create your own family tree or heart map, enjoy a book in our cozy reading corner, play some old-fashioned games, and complete a museum scavenger hunt. Outdoor activities will include a hockey skills challenge with NHL /Stanley Cup hockey player Aaron Downey. Please bring your own helmet.

Regular admission rates apply. Cider and hot chocolate free with admission ? special family rate available. Soup, sandwiches & treats available for purchase.
