Dundalk man charged with impaired driving in Mulmur as a result of traffic stop

Dufferin Ontario Provincial Police (OPP) officers recently charged a Dundalk resident with impaired operation related offences as the result of a traffic stop.

On March 2, just after 12:30 a.m., Dufferin OPP officers were conducting traffic enforcement on Highway 89 in Mulmur. Officers noted a traffic violation and conducted a traffic stop.

After a brief conversation, the officers were quickly led to an impaired driving investigation.

Kevin Williams, 49, from Dundalk, has been charged with:

? Operation while impaired - blood alcohol concentration (80 plus)

? Driving motor vehicle with liquor readily available

? Speeding 1 - 49 Km/h over posted limit

? Fail to surrender insurance card

? Fail to surrender permit for motor vehicle

The accused individual is scheduled to appear before the Ontario Court of Justice in Orangeville. Their driver's licence was suspended, and their vehicle impounded.

None of the listed charges have been proven in court.
