This page was exported from - Shelburne Free Press
Export date: Sat Oct 31 8:04:14 2026 / +0000 GMT

Funny business on Halloween

Assault ? a story too good nor to share, even if it's out of area:
Sometimes, our officers see things that are hard to believe.
Early on Saturday, October 31, around 1 a.m., officers were dispatched to the Stroud Arena for a fight call. When they arrived on scene, they saw a man in costume as the Tin Man from the Wizard of Oz, being treated by paramedics. Three ladies, dressed as Dorothy, Glinda the Good Witch, and the Wicked Witch of the East, told the officer that the Tin Man had been punched by his friend the Scarecrow. The Scarecrow didn't have the brains to stick around, and ran away with the Cowardly Lion.
Turns out the Tin Man didn't have the heart to lay charges against his friend, and refused to tell the officers anything. He was treated for minor injuries.
Officers believe alcohol was involved.