Joining forces to benefit Family Transition Place and the community

Dufferin Accounting Services and Personal Solutions Financial announced that they are joining forces in an effort to better serve their clients' financial needs in the Caledon and Orangeville/Dufferin areas. They are concerned with the growing trend of increasing debt loads in Canadian households.

In order to address this concern, the newly expanded businesses will be hosting a series of educational seminars. The first event ?Women Today, Protecting Your Assets? is scheduled for November 12th, from 7 p.m. at the Orangeville Public Library. The seminar will cover a variety of topics to educate and assist women going through a divorce, separation and/or deaths. This seminars keynote speaker is family lawyer, Karen Thompson-Harry. For more information or tickets call 519 925-5282 or 416 931-9127.

The ladies at both companies are firm believers in giving back to the communities that they live and work in and will be donating all proceeds from the seminar to Family Transition Place in Orangeville.
