This page was exported from - Shelburne Free Press
Export date: Sat Oct 31 18:48:19 2026 / +0000 GMT

No seatbelt or insurance

On Friday, October 2, at 2:24 p.m., Grey County OPP stopped a 2008 Chevrolet Cobalt on Main Street East, Dundalk, after the driver was observed operating the vehicle without wearing a seat belt. After a brief conversation, police found that the driver failed to have valid insurance for the vehicle.

25-year old Justine Lambercy of Dundalk, was charged with failing to properly wear a seatbelt under the Highway Traffic Act and operating a motor vehicle on highway ? no insurance under the Compulsory Automobile Insurance Act.

She is scheduled to appear in court in Owen Sound on October 26.