Opening night draws nigh...

The Trouble with Trent by Fred Carmichael and directed by Denis Stephenson opens on next Friday, October 16th, at Grace Tipling Hall, Shelburne.

It's funny. It's mysterious, suspenseful... As one character puts it, ?I'm getting intrigued?. So... just who is who they claim to be? Three mystery enthusiasts write a detective story in the first person under the name Sarah Trent, emailing chapters to each other and meeting to polish it off. Then their agent hints that Sarah Trent is a real person and book sales soar. Meeting at a beach cottage to finish their second book, the three are inundated with fans wanting to meet Sarah, and become entangled in a real life whodunnit comedy involving a socialite, a blackmailer and undercover government agents.

Tickets are available from Shelburne Town Hall, Holmes Appliances and Music Shop, Caravaggio IDA and online at www.tiplingstagecompany.com for performances on October 16th, 17th, 23rd and 24th at 8 p.m. and October 18th at 2 p.m.
