This page was exported from - Shelburne Free Press
Export date: Fri Oct 30 6:58:39 2026 / +0000 GMT

Shelburne Library News

By Rose Dotten

Children's Programs

The Super Readers Club has started. However, there are still spaces available for children to join. We had 10 youngsters here participating last week. It is a fun program with crafts, reading, activities, and prizes. It runs on Tuesday after school from 3.30 to 4.30 p.m.

The Paws to Read program is every Tuesday at 3.45. Come and read to Mac the Therapeutic Poodle. He loves to listen to children read.

Story Time is on Friday at 10:30: There will be a special guest doing story time this week. This will be a fun event with stories about elephants, surprise ?things? about elephants? don't miss it. We are still looking for moms and babies to start a baby song and story time. For any or all our programs you can call the Library at 519-925-2168

Teen Scene

This is the last week for the White Pine reading club. Members MUST submit all reviews of their books no later than 5 p.m. on Wednesday. For those who have read at least five of the titles and submitted their reviews, we will have a celebratory party?pizza included.

Here are some other upcoming events: Sarah's Book Bash's second book club meeting will take place on Thursday, April 28, from 4-5 p.m.

Young adult author, E.K. Johnston will visit the library April 28 at 6 p.m. This event is open to everyone, but registration is preferred.

April 14- White Pine vote day/celebration (by invitation only)

April 21 Teen Scene

April 28- Author Visit: E.K. Johnston, author of The Story of Owen: Dragon Slayer of Trondheim. Youth and adults alike are invited to this event. Register by coming in or calling YOUR Library at 519-925-2168.

Dufferin Reads: One Book One County

This year's selection is Mãn by Kim Thùy. Meet Kim at the Dufferin County Museum on Sunday, May 1, 2016 at 1 p.m. with her discussion about the book and her life.

Join us for refreshments after the talk.

Tickets are $10 and are limited.

They can be purchased at the libraries and Booklore.

In conjunction with our OBOC, this past Sunday we held a Library Literary event at our library. The event featured Jamie McAlpine, who kept the audience entertained with slides and informative discussion about his trip to Vietnam. Other patrons who were on the trip also added some interesting details during the afternoon.

In addition to the exciting presentation the Library chefs, a.k.a. Rose, Jade, Bev and Trudy, cooked up a Vietnamese feast to the delight of all who attended. Vietnamese salads, pot stickers, crackers and banana cake rounded out the menu.

Nancy Frater from BookLore, always so supportive of our library events, contributed Spring Rolls and thanked Jamie for his great talk. It was a fun afternoon and much appreciated by the audience who put in requests for us to hold these types of events once a month!

New Books:

We have just ordered another copy of The Illegal by Lawrence Hill, since we have 10 holds on our copy. We should be able to meet the demands shortly.

Fiction

Without a Trace by Lesley Pearse

Buying on Time by Antanas Sileika

The Three Sisters Bar & Hotel by Katherine Govier

Recipes for Love and Murder by Sally Andrew

The Absolution by Jonathan Holt

The Steel Kiss by Jeffery Deaver

Goodbye to the Dead by Brian Freeman

Husband and Wife by Leah Stewart

The Dressmaker by Rosalie Ham

War Room by Chris Fabry

Cometh the Hour by Jeffrey Archer

Non-fiction

The New Easy by Donna Hay

Janusz Zurakowski: Legend in the Skies by Bill Zuk

The Lost Tudor Princess by Alison Weir

Your Personal Paleo Code by Chris Kresser

Andy Warhol was a Hoarder by Claudia Kalb

Elon Musk by Ashlee Vance

Free Days with George by Colin Campbell

Tell it to the World by Eliott Behar