Stunt driving

On May 29, 2015 at 6:50 a.m. Dufferin OPP were conducting speed enforcement on the Mono-Amaranth town-line at Dufferin County Road 10 in Mono.

A southbound Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle was travelling at a high rate of speed. Officers activated the radar and clocked him atc127 kms in a posted 70 km per hour zone.

A traffic stop was initiated. As result the 27 year make driver from Amaranth Township was charged with stunt driving. His vehicle and drivers license were seized for 7 days.

The accused will appear in Orangeville court at a later date to answer to the charge.
