Traffic stop leads to drug charges

On Friday, April 24th Shelburne Police obtained information that the driver of a GMC pick-up truck was in possession of marijuana.

An officer stopped the truck and conducted a road side investigation resulting in a small quantity of marijuana being seized, and the driver being arrested for possession of a controlled substance.

33 year old Jeremy Plant of Shelburne was charged with Possession of a Controlled Substance and released on an appearance notice with a court date in May.

If anyone has any information in relation to this case or any other criminal activity, they are encouraged to contact the Shelburne Police Service at 519-925-3312 or anonymously through Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477) or online at www.crimestopperssdm.com
